

Pastor's Section

Welcome to my section of the ECC web site. I hope the site is a blessing and an inspiration. You'll note that the Word of God preached at ECC can be downloaded; this is for those who fellowship at ECC as this is the Weekly Spiritual Food for their lives. However, it is open to anyone wishing to listen to the Word of God and my desire is that it will increase your passion and commitment to our Wonderful Lord and Saviour, Jesus.

I have a passion in ministry to see local churches change communities by reach out to hurt and broken people so that their lives will be restored and rebuilt by the power and practical love of the Gospel of Jesus. My books have this desire in mind and the training I provide on the issue of domestic abuse seeks to help churches recognise and respond effectively to victims of domestic abuse. Details of these ministries can also be found on this site. If you want to know more please get in touch.

Big Blessings
